Are you passionate about supporting women in a holistic, gender responsive, trauma-informed way to achieve long lasting change?

Are you flexible, reliable, and able to take initiative?

We are looking for an enthusiastic and passionate Nelson Trust Champion volunteer to support our Cardiff Team to reach out to the community to raise awareness of our Women's Centre and support more women to come in from across the region.

Key Activities:

- Reach out to local organisations and businesses to promote The Nelson Trust.
- Disseminate information and literature about The Nelson Trust.
- Attend events and activities where The Nelson Trust can be promoted.
- Support centre celebrations or themed days.
- Welcome nervous newcomers into the Women's Centre.

Time Commitment:

To be discussed at interview.

Relevant experience, skills and qualities for this role:

- Essential - experience and confidence in approaching and networking with organisations and businesses.
- Enthusiasm and passion to promote The Nelson Trust.
- Professional, outgoing and friendly.
- Time management and organisational skills.
- Reliable and trustworthy.
- Motivated and approachable.
- Kind, empathetic and non-judgmental.

Why volunteer with The Nelson Trust?

- Make a real impact by being part of a Women's Centre model that champions holistic, gender-responsive, and trauma-informed support.
- Feel confident and equipped with a thorough induction, relevant training, and continuous support and guidance.
- Grow and thrive through opportunities for personal development and access to further training that can support your future goals.

The Nelson Trust is committed to safeguarding; therefore, the successful applicant will be required to undergo an Enhanced DBS check and provide the names and contact details of two referees for references to be sought before commencing with The Trust. In addition, you will also need to undergo an Enhanced Level 1 Vetting application with HMPPS.

If you are looking for a rewarding opportunity to make a difference in your community, join us as a volunteer.
